

Captain Gilles Lalumiere

Captain Gill Lalumiere began his law enforcement career with the Griffin Police Department where he served as a patrol officer. While working with GPD he completed his Bachelor of Arts degree from Tift College.

After completing his degree he was accepted as an agent with the Georgia Bureau of Investigation.

During his GBI career Gill served in various investigative functions and attended numerous training seminars as he advanced his career. After a 25 year career he retired from the GBI as an Assistant Special Agent in Charge.

After retirement he accepted a position as the Chief of Police in Milner, Georgia.

From Milner Gill worked with the United States Attorney's Office as a Homeland Security Specialist. This led to a position with the United States Treasury as an investigator.

In 2013 Lalumiere was appointed as Captain with the Spalding County Sheriff's Office commanding the Special Operations Unit.

Under Sheriff Darrell Dix, Gill commands the Criminal Investigative Division and Special Operations.
