

Captain Dwayne Jones

Captain Dwayne Jones is a Griffin native and Griffin High School graduate. He brings nearly three decades of law enforcement experience to the Spalding County Sheriff's Office. He previously served with the Griffin Police Department where he rose through the ranks retiring as a captain.

Jones is a graduate of the 201st session of the Federal Bureau of Investigation National Academy in Quantico Virginia. The FBI Academy is designed for senior law enforcement managers. It is recognized as the premier law enforcement training course available for law enforcement officers.

He also graduated from Class 3 of the Georgia Association of Chiefs of Police Law Enforcement Command College in Columbus.

Captain Jones holds P.O.S.T. (Peace Officer Standards and Training) certificates in Management and Supervision. He has been certified as a law enforcement general instructor for over twenty years, teaching at several locations throughout the state.

Jones has a Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice from Mercer University and a Master of Public Administration degree from Columbus State University.

Captain Jones also serves as an adjunct instructor with Columbus State University, lecturing in the Professional Management Program. His areas of expertise include personnel, performance appraisals and essential skills of management in the law enforcement modules. He also instructs in PMP program for the Georgia Department of Corrections, where he specializes in Criminal Rehabilitation programs.

His professional affiliations include the Federal Bureau of Investigation National Academy Associates.

Captain Dwayne Jones

Phone: 770/467-4282 Ext. 413

Fax: 770/467-4261

Email: djones@spaldingcounty.com